As some of know I bike everyday. Today, Monday (MLK Holiday) I bike up Beachwood Dr. to Hollyridge to Canyon Bl., that's my Monday route. At 9:30 Am Beachwood was already congested with cars and pedestrians, when I arrived at the trailhead on Canyon there were about a1/4th of the cars and pedestrians 10:30am, as there had been on Beachwood! (and there are parking lots at Canyon!) And Canyon is a Legal entrance!! What's wrong with this picture???

I agree with Sarajane and the others—our situation has become steadily worse. There is no longer a peak season for Hollywood Sign tourism—it goes on all through the year, regardless of weather, reaching a boiling point on weekends. The various remedies we've been offered—parking enforcement, police patrols—are a Band-Aid fix for problems that can only be solved with the closing of the illegal Beachwood Drive entrance to the park.

As long as the City deems tourism more important than the safety of Hollywoodland residents, I don't anticipate any change. Despite his assurances, Councilmember Ryu is merely reacting to our myriad problems, not tackling their cause.

Google continues to be at the root of the problem (see screen grab), but apparently:

1. There is still no one at the city doing the job of digital maintenance for this area.
2. Or they cannot do their job because Ryu's office has not removed directional signage.
3. And/or it takes city-level authority for Google to respond.

How do the elected officials in this city live with themselves? House Of Cards is hardly a fantasy.

Agree, Bio

I am also amazed at how Aliss has more power than the City Council. CD4 were able to erase the other two problematic websites practically overnight, but not these.

These inflammatory websites make a mockery out of this dire situation, and they blatantly list PRIVATE, RESIDENTIAL ADDRESSES for the Hollywood Sign. They also list a fake address on the dirt part of dirt Mulholland; as well as the illegal vista on Canyon Lake.
